

Prevention

It is our goal to help ensure that the troubles of parents are not reinforced in their children. We help parents, who are themselves healing from trauma, neglect and abuse, to learn parenting skills that will allow their children to become healthy adults. In our Parenting with Passion workshops, we work to teach that excellent parenting can happen when parents value and take care of themselves. Parents are then equipped to help build self esteem and value in their children's lives, becoming positive role models for the growth and development of their children.

Counselling

The odds are stacked against thousands of kids and their families in our community: economic hardship, trouble at home and at school, run-ins with the law and even prison. When the time for prevention has passed and therapeutic intervention is required, our counsellors are equipped with an amazing array of skills and a vast depth of knowledge to help children and their families develop new and successful pathways for their lives.

Responsiveness

People manage better when they feel valued. We know that people feel valued when they receive our help in a timely fashion, regardless of their ability to pay and in the language of their choice. Some lives are just more complicated than others. The tremendous demand for service at our new Walk-In Counselling Clinic underscores the critical nature of a prompt response. When one in five people who visit our Walk-In Counselling Clinic are suicidal or victims of woman or child abuse, you can easily see the benefit of an open door and immediate support.

Training

Since the formation of our agency in 1950, we have invested in the training of people to carry out the work of counselling. We offer clinical and academic training for students pursuing a Bachelor of Social Work, Master of Social Work and Couples & Family Therapist certification. Many excellent therapists across Canada owe their clinical skills to the commitment of K-W Counselling Services.

“Thank you, K-W Counselling Services, for letting my mom and dad come to the course you call Parenting with Passion. Mom and dad seem to be very smart now. Please make sure you keep doing these lessons. My friends at school need smart parents, too!”

“Thank you, K-W Counselling Services, for letting my uncle come and talk to somebody so fast at your Walk-In Counselling Clinic. He was really sad and maybe a bit mad...but after he talked to your counsellor he felt better and started talking to my aunt again. Oh!! My friend Sanjay, says thank you, too. His mom was really unhappy and lonely and you had someone to talk with her in Punjabi. Please never stop letting people just walk in...My uncle and my friend's mom felt that you really cared about them and that is so good.”

“Thank you, K-W Counselling Services, for helping my family when everyone was angry and crying. It took a while, but we are much happier now. Is there any way you could help my big brother? He yells a lot...”
